FOREWORD

Rapidly the years are passing away, and the ALMANAC and YEAR BOOK of the Reformed Church in the United States for the year of our Lord, 1933, now comes to you, presenting in brief form for busy people, a revised roster of the ministers, judicatories, boards, institutions and agencies of the Church, together with such facts as are designed for the use of all who love and serve our beloved Zion. Here you will find a resume of outstanding activities throughout the denomination and the list, up to date, of our organizations and agencies, with the personnel of their leadership, as well as other valuable facts for Church families. The co-operation of all pastors and people who assist in the circulation of this volume is greatly appreciated, as its use is of real help in forwarding the work of our Church. There are so many useful facts about what the Church has done and ought to do, that every Consistory should count it a privilege to secure its general use.

The year 1932 was notable in many ways in the history of our Church. In view of the distressing industrial situation and the quite general agreement among religious leaders that there has been a nation-wide slump in Christian idealism, much was expected from the Campaign of Spiritual Emphasis which was projected for the first half of the year. We cannot claim that it was as widely and as fervently observed as it should have been, in the face of the desperate need. Even some of those who had long acknowledged that spiritual values were deplorably minimized, failed to take full advantage of a movement that did not speak one word about budgets or money-raising, but which from beginning to end put "first things first." We can gratefully record that those who put the most effort and sacrifice into the Campaign received the greatest blessing. Surely the time is ripe for a similar movement in 1933, and this time we hope it will enlist the loyal co-operation of us all.

Naturally, the triennial gatherings of the highest judicatory of our Church, the General Synod, and of the Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod, were major events of 1932. The meeting of the women in Cleveland, Ohio, was as usual altogether heartening. We are fortunate in the fact that our women workers, for the most part, are not inclined to take counsel of their doubts and fears, but rather of their faith and enthusiasm. As hitherto, they planned for greater things in the days ahead. As for the General Synod, it is too early now to be certain about the final effect of its decisions. It was in many ways a memorable gathering which assembled in Grace Church, Akron, Ohio, June 21-28, and its members, however greatly they differed in opinions, were seriously devoted to the King's business. By well-nigh universal acclaim, the most spontaneous and progressive action of the Synod was its unanimous adoption, by a rising vote, of the Plan of Union with the Evangelical Synod of North America. This Plan has now been sent to the Classes for ratification, which will insure that before the end of 1933 we will know definitely whether this auspicious movement has succeeded. Needless to say, its approval will work great changes in the future history of our denomination.

The drastic reduction of the budget by General Synod, which goes into effect January 1, 1933, is a challenge to renewed loyalty all along the line. The hope was expressed that the reduced askings may inspire a higher morale and cause more congregations to unite in a serious attempt to pay the apportionments in full. It will be necessary for other congregations to pay considerably more than what is asked, however, if the denomination as a whole is to contribute as much as in recent years. So greatly was the giving ability or willingness of our people reduced in 1932, that the mounting debts of our Mission Boards and some of our institutions remain as a genuine menace to our progress. The special Emergency Fund drive, in the Spring of 1932, for the raising of approximately $160,000, brought in only one-fourth of that amount. At this writing, back salaries are still due to missionaries and some notes in closed banks have not been paid.

Among the outstanding actions of the General Synod with which all members of the Church should familiarize themselves, we note a few:—

1. The pronouncements on questions relating to social welfare are so plainspoken, courageous and entirely in harmony with the spirit of our denomination, that they deserve to be studied by all our people.
2. The Synod heartily commended the Catechetical Manual prepared by the Board of Christian Education for supplementary use in connection with the Heidelberg Catechism, in the preparation of young people for Church membership. By direction of the Synod, this Manual has now been published for tentative and permissive use in the Church, and we hope it may be found universally acceptable. 3. The time for the annual observance of Church Paper Day was changed from December to the Third Sunday in October, and Synod reaffirms its conviction that the future of Protestantism demands the general use of the Church Paper in the homes of the people. 4. Although the Synod felt its inability to accord financial support at this time to the Reformed Churchmen's League, yet its work was warmly commended and its leadership entrusted with this important task of enlisting the active co-operation of our men in the work of the Churches. 5. A special committee was authorized to devise ways and means to provide for the indebtedness of our Mission Boards—a challenge which should invite sacrificial effort on the part of all.

Let us prove the mettle of which we are made, and demonstrate that we are worthy of our high heritage, by making 1933 pre-eminently a year of consecration and courage. The month of April marks the 400th Anniversary of the birth of William of Orange, an observance which should have lessons of inspiration for the sons and daughters of the Reformed Church. With the growing prospect of improved conditions in the business world, let us have faith to believe that we can count upon the renewed efforts and the undaunted devotion of our pastors and people. We can do no better than to repeat that the tasks of 1933, difficult as they may now appear, will not seem to us too great an offering to lay at the feet of our Savior, if only we have love enough in our hearts for Him who loved us and gave Himself for us.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE GENERAL SYNOD

A complete report of the work done during the triennium by the Executive Committee of the General Synod was submitted to the General Synod at its meeting at Akron in June, 1932. The matters in that report and the work of the Executive Committee formed one of the most interesting and most important features of the meeting of the General Synod. The volume of work done by this Committee was remarkable. Many of the delegates were of the opinion that it is not necessary that the Executive Committee should undertake so much, especially in view of the present financial limitations.

The Campaign of Spiritual Emphasis conducted during the first five months of 1932 had the two-fold aim: To deepen the spiritual life of our members and to reach the unchurched in our communities. An effort was made to develop a stronger denominational consciousness among our pastors and people and to stimulate them to deeper love and loyalty to our Church. The conservation of our present members and the stimulation of them to greater activity took on new meaning. This campaign, under the auspices of the Committee on Spiritual Resources of the Executive Committee, was largely conducted through the Classical and Synodical Committees on Evangelism. Some of the Classes which had not previously had Committees on Evangelism appointed them. Throughout the whole Church there was renewed interest and activity in the winning of others to Christ and the Church.

The Orders of Business of our Classes, Synods and General Synods have been practically unchanged since 1840. The Executive Committee studied most carefully our whole procedure in the light of the developments of recent years and submitted to the General Synod complete "Orders of Business" for the Spring and for the Fall Meetings of the Classes and for the meetings of the Synods and of the General Synod. These were adopted unanimously. Although all of our Classes and all of our Synods differ in type, it is believed that these Orders of Business will prevent much of the confusion, irregularity and waste motion of recent years and will mark a great step forward.

All of the Boards and many of the institutions and agencies of the Reformed Church have been accepting money on the annuity plan and have been writing Annuity Agreements with the donors. Some of these agencies have offered unjustifiably high rates. The General Synod, on the recommendation of the Executive Committee, adopted rates that are not to be exceeded by any Board, institution or agency. It also adopted certain principles of administration and accounting. As a result it is hoped that the annuity business in our Church will be on a sounder and more satisfactory basis and that this form of giving will appeal more and more to our people.

The major emphasis on Stewardship throughout the Church each year is in connection with the Stewardship Essay and Poster Contest. Nearly all of our Classes,—49 in 1932, to be exact, and hundreds of our congregations,—participated in this Contest. There were requests for 5,546 packets for the use of those who would write essays or make posters. Awards were made by a number of congregations and Classes to those who prepared the best essay or poster in their respective groups, and thirty-one denominational prizes were given. This Contest is growing in popularity year by year.

The Executive Committee appointed a special committee which made a very thorough examination and study of the operation and finances of our Boards. This report was favorably received by the General Synod. It revealed the difficulties under which our Boards are operating, but it helped to establish confidence in them. The report as a whole and the several sections were referred to the several Boards who are studying it and are to report to the Executive Committee the extent to which they are carrying out the recommendations.

The General Synod elected a new Executive Committee consisting of a minister and an elder from each of the six Synods, and the President and Stated Clerk of the General Synod and a representative of the Woman's Missionary Society. These fifteen members are: Rev. Henry J. Christman, D.D., Rev. J. Rauch Stein, D.D., Mrs. F. W. Leich, Rev. Melvin E. Beck, Rev. Wm. M. Diefenderfer, Prof. John H. Eisenhauer, Rev. George Grether, Mr. Walter M. Hand, Mr. Wm. Klumb, Jr., Rev. John Lentz, D.D., Mr. J. Franklin Meyer, Ph.D., Rev. F. H. Rupnow, D.

Leich, Rev. Melvin E. Beck, Rev. Henry J. Christman, D.D., Chairman; Clarence E. Zimmerman, Rev. J. Rauch Stein, D.D., Wm. Klumb, Jr., Rev. John Lentz, D.D., Prof. John H. Eisenhauer, Rev. Paul D. Yoder, D.D.

D., Rev. Paul D. Yoder, D.D., Mr. George W. Ziegler, and Mr. Clarence E. Zimmerman. The officers of the Committee are Rev. Henry J. Christman, D.D., Chairman, Rev. William E. Lampe, Ph.D., Secretary, Rev. John M. G. Darms, D.D., Assistant Secretary, and Mr. Milton Warner, Treasurer.

The General Synod specified the following as the duties of the Executive Committee during the next triennium:

1. Co-ordinate the work of the Boards of General Synod;
2. Receive and adjust the budgets of said Boards and submit them to General Synod with recommendations;
3. Co-operate with the Classes in apportioning the budgets;
4. Aid pastors and Consistories in the Annual Every Member Canvass;
5. Regulate the making of special appeals for funds throughout the Church;
6. Serve as a general bureau of Church Finances;
7. Promote the principles and practice of Christian Stewardship;
8. Prepare the Order of Business and the Blue Book for the meeting of the General Synod;
9. Act on the communications from other Church Bodies requiring attention;
10. See to it that adequate publicity in the secular and general religious press be given to the pronouncements, activities and achievements of the denomination;
11. And shall perform such other functions as may be assigned by the General Synod.

The new Executive Committee is working on a reduced budget and of necessity is curtailing much of the work, especially during this period of depression.

One of the major activities of the Executive Committee is the Annual Every Member Canvass through which the individual member is enlisted and given an opportunity to share personally by regular weekly contributions and by way of proportionate giving in the entire program of the local church and of the denomination. The basis of the Canvass is spiritual—sharing the Gospel and the Christian life with our fellowmen. The individual member must be kept informed regarding every phase of denominational missionary and benevolent work. Marked progress has been made in the technique of the Canvass, the appointment and training of Canvass directors, the various methods employed, and the regularity in the giving and forwarding of benevolent moneys. With every member giving every week to every cause in a Christian way all financial needs of every church and of the denomination can be easily met. The General Synod has approved and recommended this scriptural method of finance and the Executive Committee is zealously seeking to have it accepted and made operative in every congregation of our Reformed Church.

The new method of approach to the consistories, by personal visitation, inaugurated in 1931 by the Executive Committee, has proved popular and acceptable throughout the Church. More than 900 consistories were reached by means of these congregational consistorial conferences. Under the supervision of the Executive Committee, and by direction of the Classical Missionary and Stewardship Committees, these conferences will be continued. It is generally felt that from this personal visitation of consistories by members and representatives of Boards, members of Classical Committees, and others, will result a better understanding of the problems, the opportunities, and the task of the Church. In the sympathy and co-operation created, lies the basis for the personal enlistment of every member in the entire program of the local and benevolent work of the Reformed Church.

Think This Over

There is always something unspeakably pathetic about the last will and testament of so-called "rich" folks who leave not a penny to religion, charity, or education, but bestow all their material wealth upon their family and relatives, many of whom already have more than is good for them. It is not necessary to prove that in many cases such wealth comes to be a curse rather than a blessing. It is heartening to know that an increasing number have recognized the folly of such a disposition of wealth, and they are putting it to the best possible uses, in statesman-like efforts to make life happier and better for the generations yet to come. Remember the Church of God.

The triennial report which the Board of Home Missions submitted to the General Synod at Akron last June gives a complete and comprehensive account of its activities. This report is available at headquarters. It should be in the hands of all who wish to inform themselves of the work of Home Missions in our denomination. The Home Mission forces form the vanguard of the Church of Christ in America. They are the pioneers who invade new territory and open new doors for the Church. Just in proportion as the work of Home Missions is fostered the Church will prosper. If it is allowed to lag every other enterprise in the Church will be retarded. There never was a time in our history when conditions in America demanded a more aggressive program for the Church. The forces of sin and of iniquity are waxing stronger while the efforts of the Church seem to be waning. If the Church is ever to redeem human society it must not cease to expand its domain and avail itself more fully of the spiritual resources which are at its command. The tragedy of the present situation is that the Church seems altogether too willing to retreat from the position it once occupied and "to mark time" in its aggressive program to win this country for Christ. The task of Home Missions is by no means a finished task. It has scarcely begun. Some of its former policies may need to be changed in the light of new developments, but the basic principle is just as vital and essential as it ever was. America is not yet won for Christ. Millions of souls remain outside of the fellowship of the Church and an appallingly large number of our youth grow up without a knowledge of the Bible or without making contacts with vital Christian forces. The temper and spirit of American life is altogether too worldly and materialistic and this is the basic reason for the present economic depression in our country. Not only need individuals be won to Christ but the whole social order needs to be redeemed through the power of the gospel of God.

When the spirit of adventure ceases in the Church it has lost its vision and its savor. The Board of Home Missions has been most zealous that this fate should not befall the Reformed Church in the United States. But by reason of the world-wide depression the Board was obliged to retrench along a number of lines of its activity. It was compelled to restrict its program because of decreased contributions from the Church at large for this cause. Some work had to be abandoned. Some departments had to be dismantled. Some of the workers had to be dismissed. Salaries had to be reduced even though this entailed many hardships upon the Missionaries and their families. No new work could be started. Promising fields which were allotted to us could not be entered. The Board has tried to comfort itself with the thought that this condition would only be temporary, and that in due time the Church at large would make it possible for the Board to pursue a new program of advance. We are confident that the members of the Reformed Church desire this work to go forward and that their present decreased contributions do not indicate a decline in their interest in the work itself.

For the purpose of administration the Board has arranged its work into departments. At one time there was a Superintendent for each one of these departments, but because of the shrinkage in the receipts of the Board it became necessary to dismiss a number of these Superintendents and place the responsibility of the work which they carried upon the general office. The following Departments, however, continue:—

The Department of the East—Rev. James M. Mullan, D.D., Superintendent.

The Department of the Central West—Rev. John C. Horning, D.D., Superintendent.

The Department of the Northwest—Rev. T. P. Bolliger, D.D., Superintendent.

The Department of Church Building—Rev. William F. DeLong, Superintendent.

The Immigrant Department and the Department of Country Life have no Superintendents.

Rev. Edward F. Evemeyer, D.D., remains the nominal Superintendent of the Department of the Pacific Coast but without salary, and Rev. Rufus C. Zartman, D.D., continues as Superintendent of the Department of Evangelism but also without salary. The Commission on Social Service, which is rendering a great service to the Church, is directed by Dr. James M. Mullan, in addition to his duties as Superintendent of the Department of the East.

There are 237 Missions on the Roll of the Board, having a membership of more than 26,000 souls and an equal number of Sunday School members. The field covers the entire United States and three Provinces in the Dominion of Canada. There are Missions among the following nationalities: English, German, Hungarian, Japanese, Czech, and Indian. At Black River Falls, Wisconsin, there is a Mission composed entirely of Winnebago Indians, and at Neillsville, Wisconsin, there is an Indian School attended by about 100 Indian children. The Board is also supporting a Harbor Missionary in New York City, who renders valuable service to emigrants and immigrants.

Through the generous aid of the Woman's Missionary Society the Board supports a number of deaconesses and other workers in our Hungarian and Japanese Missions.

The support of these Missionaries, so widely scattered throughout our country, comes from the Church through what is called the Apportionment. The General Synod designates a certain amount of money for this work and apportions the same among the Classes of the Church and these in turn among the congregations and charges to raise during the course of each year. Just in the degree in which the Church at large raises this money and puts it at the disposal of the Board can the Board function in carrying on its work. When this money is not supplied for some reason or other, the work must languish and the Missionaries themselves are compelled to suffer.

During many years the Board has carried forward a great building program for its Missions. Hundreds of Churches have been built through Home Mission aid. The Board has built up a substantial Fund amounting to about $700,000, which is loaned to the Missions for building purposes. This forms a sort of revolving Fund which has proved of inestimable service to the Missions. This Fund has been gathered through the years through so-called Church-building Funds of $500, or more, each, which bear the name of the giver or that of some one designated by the donor. A complete list of these Funds indicating the name, the donor and the place where the money is invested, appears in the published reports of the Board to the General Synod since 1886.

At another place in this Year Book appear some statistics pertaining to the work of Home Missions, and also the names of the members of the Board and of those who form the Staff of workers. The work of Home Missions is a great enterprise. It is a vast and varied undertaking on the part of the Church. It merits the wholehearted support and the earnest prayers of our entire constituency.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

The Church of Christ stands on the threshold of a new day for world-wide Missions. As Christians we are not to escape from the world, or to take refuge from the many problems that confront us, but we are to go into all the world, with the message of hope and cheer, taking up the burdens of our needy brethren, and there God will use us in His service. Let our prayer be in the year 1933, "Revive Thy Church, O Lord, beginning in me."

* * *

Vain are the best efforts of men for the Christian conquest of the world apart from Him who said, "All power is given to me in heaven and on earth." The Gospel of Jesus Christ is the power of God unto salvation. Ours is indeed a spiritual Gospel. It is a revelation. The Faith we believe in is a gift from God which we must make known to others. Only as we spread it, will all men come to know Him whom to know is life eternal.

* * *

There is abundant reason for our Church to feel thankful and encouraged with the progress of its three Missions in Japan, China and Mesopotamia. Had the Board more workers and larger means at its disposal the results would be greater. All our fields are in need of additional missionaries—evangelists, teachers, doctors and nurses. Who will go? Who will send?

* * *

The Eighteenth Triennial Report of the Board to the General Synod at Akron, Ohio, presents a story of unusual interest. It will be sent to any one who applies for it at headquarters—1505 Race Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

* * *

There are many evidences of the strength and virility of the Church of Christ in Japan. Many churches and schools stand as proofs of the ability and willingness of Japanese Christians to support the missionary enterprise. The Kagawa movement is attracting tens of thousands and promises a new spiritual awakening throughout the Empire.

* * *

Lest we forget, it should be stated that there are only about 1,198 Protestant missionaries and about 5,573 Japanese associates among about 65,000,000 people, the great mass of whom have never heard the name of Jesus. A new feature of recent years is the Farmers' Gospel School. This will extend the influence of the Churches into the remoter rural districts. Fully 80 per cent of the people live in farming communities.

* * *

The great outstanding event of the past year in the history of North Japan College has been the erection of the Rahauser Memorial Church which was made possible by the $50,000 gift of Miss Ella A. Rahauser of Pittsburgh, Pa. In this edifice has been placed a Möller pipe organ, the first of its kind in Northern Japan. To this munificent gift have also been added other large gifts from American and Japanese friends, to equip the building with suitable furniture, memorial windows and the pipe organ. We believe this sacred edifice will make its impress for God and for holiness of life upon the students and the citizens of Sendai in the coming years.

The love and esteem which the faculty and patrons of Miyagi College bore to Dr. and Mrs. Allen K. Faust, the former President, found very substantial expression in the "Faust Kwan" or Faust Hall. It will be used for sewing classes, and a social center for the whole school. This is the first building to be contributed by our Japanese friends and it is greatly appreciated.

REV. ARTHUR V. CASSELMAN, D.D.,
ASSOCIATE SECRETARY OF THE
BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS

The election of Rev. Arthur V. Casselman, D. D., as Associate Secretary of the Board, has met with universal favor in the Church. His thirty years of intimate relation with the work, and his visits to the Orient have given him a unique experience and qualifications that few men possess. Much credit is due him for making it possible to establish the China Mission, by encouraging Grace Church of Columbiana, Ohio, of which he was pastor at the time, to pledge the support of a missionary. Dr. Casselman is an able writer, an eloquent speaker, and a capable administrator.

* * *

China is the theme for Mission Study in 1932 and 1933. This is the biggest nation in the world. The missionary situation in China should make us very serious. We need to take a new survey of the field. This will require a re-study of the whole problem of Missions in China. Splendid books, pictures and movies have been prepared to afford every facility to the students for the fullest information.

There are 22 regular teachers and half of these have a college degree. Dr. Calvin K. Staudt is Principal, Rev. David D. Baker is Vice Principal and Secretary, and Rev. F. Nelsen Schlegel is Treasurer. The Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod will provide $40,000 in five years for a new building—a most generous offer.

THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

BOARD
Elected
1932

Rev. E. L. Coblentz, D.D.

Rev. Richard Rettig

The Board of Christian Education as it functions today embraces a varied program of work. Many of its present responsibilities have come to it from former Boards of the Church, which were organized from time to time to perform special work, and through whose merger and re-merger it has been constituted. The first of these was the Board of Publication, organized by the General Synod in 1844 to be the denominational publishing house and to serve as the Church's printing establishment. In 1887 the Sunday School Board of the Reformed Church was created by the General Synod, which met in Akron, Ohio, to have general executive oversight over Sunday School work. In 1912 the Publication Board and the Sunday School Board were merged into what came to be known thenceforth as the Publication and Sunday School Board. In 1923 the General Synod organized still another board, which was called the Board of Christian Education, whose responsibility it was to function in an advisory relationship to the educational institutions of the Church and to give guidance particularly in the field of the training of the future leadership of the Church. In 1929 this last-named Board was merged with the Publication and Sunday School Board under the charter of the latter Board, and since that time the merged Board has been known as "The Board of Christian Education of the Reformed Church."

RE-ORGANIZATION OF THE BOARD

The following new members of the Board were elected at the recent sessions of the General Synod (6 year term) Rev. Elmer L. Coblentz, D.D., Eastern Synod; Rev. Elmer G. Homrighausen, Th. D., Mid-West Synod. (3 year term) Rev. Richard Rettig, Synod of the Northwest. Members of the Board whose terms expired and who were re-elected are the following: Rev. Theodore F. Herman, D.D., Rev. Lawrence E. Bair, D.D., Rev. Alfred N. Sayres, Harry E. Hartman and Milton Warner. The Board re-organized for the triennium by electing its former officers, with one exception. Rev. Henry J. Christman, D.D., was chosen as vice-president in place of Rev. Charles F. Kriete, D.D., who retired from service on the Board after a continuous membership of forty-five years. The three women advisory members were re-elected: Mrs. Lee M. Erdman, Eastern Synod; Mrs. F. W. Leich, Ohio Synod; Miss Margaret R. Motter, Potomac Synod.

FIELD PROMOTION

There are three major ways in which the Board carries on its field promotion work. The first is by correspondence and by personal visits of the Board's staff to the local schools for conference there. The second is through intensive work done in local schools by the Board's specialists, such as is being carried on at present in Calvary Reformed Church, Bethlehem, Pa., and in the English Reformed Church, Wooster, Ohio. The third way is through co-operation with Classical and Synodical committees and Directors of Christian Education. The Board is conducting an intensive experiment in one of the Classes, to discover in how far busy pastors and elders can render service of this sort to the schools of Classis. This Classis is West Susquehanna, Eastern Synod. It is the hope of the Board that this experiment will furnish a suggestive pattern for field promotion, to be used eventually by all the Classes.

CHILDREN'S AND YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK

In the Children's Division the past year was not one of extensive growth, but rather a year in which every school was seeking to develop a better program for the children. Vacation school enrollments continue to grow. Ministers tell of the joyous fellowship they have with their children during the vacation school period. The Children's Day services for 1932 seem to have given general satisfaction. The increasing sales of the departmental graded lesson material show a growing appreciation of the newer trend in religious education.

Marked improvement in adult interest in young people's work, growth in numbers and efficiency in young people's organizations, and a finer quality of local church young people's organizations, are reported. Youth conferences were of a higher type, educationally, and the delegates seemed keener and more interested than in former years. The Northwest Synod, through its Board of Religious Education, and with the enthusiastic support of the Classes and the young people of the Synod, is promoting a piece of young people's work, through the organization known as the

CHILDREN OF PRACTICE SCHOOL, LEADERSHIP TRAINING, DAYTON, O.

Heidelberg League, that stands without parallel in our Church. The Director of Young People's work, Mrs. Catherine M. Balm, resigned in March and relinquished her work on September 1, 1932.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING

The past year has been marked by an encouraging increase of workers' conferences and workers' libraries in our churches, and greater interest in Community Leadership Training schools. Much more attention is being given than in former years to the developing of capable leaders. In order to help teachers of leadership training classes, the Board continues to co-operate with other denominations in promoting two-day Coaching Conferences at which there is ample opportunity for the discussion of the best teaching procedures and of the requirements of the International Council for the accrediting of teachers.

Our summer schools and camps had encouraging enrollments. The Dayton Summer School and the New Glarus Summer School were able to maintain the 1931 level of enrollments. The Shady Side Conference, successor to the Kiskiminetas Conference, increased from 46 full-time delegates in 1931 to 75 in 1932. At Camp Mensch Mill a full two-months' course was inaugurated, including a camp for Intermediates, the first of its kind in our Church.

Dr. and Mrs. Jacob G. Rupp have purchased a farm of 23 acres adjoining Camp Mensch Mill and have entered into an agreement with the Board of Christian Education to donate it ultimately for camp purposes. This proposed gift assures the control of land essential to the future development of the camp project.

PUBLICATIONS

Pursuant to actions taken by the General Synod and other groups in the Church, a Manual of supplementary material for use in catechetical classes was prepared and submitted to the General Synod with the request that its publication for tentative and permissive use be approved. The request was granted, and the Manual is now available in book form. It is hoped that its use will be found so helpful that a second edition will be needed.

The valuable book by Rev. A. V. Casselman, D.D., "The Winnebago Finds a Friend," should be much used in our Churches and Schools. A course of missionary lessons for children about the Winnebago Indian missionary work, written by Rev. Benjamin Stucki, has been published by the Board for use in a supplementary way, or as a substitute for some regular Church School lessons.

Special attention is called to the following leaflets distributed during the year:

"In Your Church," "Vacation Church School," "Children's Division Guide," "Promotion Day Services for the Children's Division," "News for Leaders of Youth," "Learning with Rural Children," "International Reading Course," "A Word to Parents about the Child's Religion," published from the proceeds of the Rufus W. and Katherine McCauley Miller Fund, "The Heidelberg Departmental Graded Lessons," "Best Books at a Glance," "Starting the Fall Work," "Continent Wide Sunday School Increase Campaign."

DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS AND REAL ESTATE

The Board in its business and real estate responsibilities has been confronted with the same problems and difficulties which the business world in general has had to face. Due to the effects of the depression, there has been a lessened volume of business. Churches and schools are urged to secure their books, periodicals, and supplies from Church sources rather than otherwise.

OUR FIRST INTERMEDIATE CAMP AT MENSCH MILL

THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF

C. C. WALTHOUR, Esq.,
Elected Member of the Board
1932

General Synod's Board of Ministerial Relief cares lovingly for our aged and disabled ministers and the widows of our ministers to the extent of its ability. It is the Big Brother Board of our Church. It gives all it receives from the Church, and considerably more, to our veteran ministers and their widows. It uses no contributions of our Church for its overhead expenses.

General Synod Commends the Board

The 1932 General Synod highly commended the Board of Ministerial Relief for its very efficient work and for the splendid service it rendered our Church and our veteran ministers and their widows. The Laymen's Committee on Ministerial Relief of the General Synod also congratulated your Board on the successful work it did during 1929-1932, in the following language: "After studying carefully every phase of the work of Ministerial Relief during the last three years, we congratulate the Board of Ministerial Relief on the success it has made of its work, on the efficient way it conducts its business, and especially on the more adequate care it has provided for our aged and disabled ministers and the widows of our ministers. We ask the General Synod to unite with us in commending the Board of Ministerial Relief for its faithfulness as a steward of our Church and for its good housekeeping."

Progress of the Board

The Board of Ministerial Relief made great progress since it was organized in 1905. The contributions to the Relief Department of $215.81 at the close of the first year, gradually increased each year until now they are over $60,000 a year. During the same period the total annuities increased from $45 to over $70,000; the annuitants from 1 to 270 a year; and their average annuities from $45 to $272. The annuitants of the Sustentation Fund also increased from 2 in 1923 to 93 in 1931, and the total annuities from $85 in 1923 to $10,881.62 in 1931. From 1905 to the close of 1931 the Board gave $680,658.72 to nearly 500 annuitants.

Our Ministers

Our ministers are divinely ordained. They are our spiritual teachers. They bring salvation to the world through Jesus Christ. Therefore, the first duty of our Church is to care adequately for our ministers, while they are in the active service of the Church and when they become aged or disabled. If we do not care for our ministers, we will have no ministers to care for us. The Christian Church cannot exist without spiritual leaders.

313 Reasons for Ministerial Relief

There are 313 reasons for Ministerial Relief in our Reformed Church. These 313 reasons are the 106 aged and disabled ministers, the 204 widows, and the 3 orphan children of ministers, to whom our Church, through its Board of Ministerial Relief, gave $84,509.50 last year. The loving care of our veterans of the cross is one of the finest services our Church renders. What is more beautiful than the care of the aged and sick?

Needs of Our Veteran Ministers

The Board of Ministerial Relief knows its veteran ministers and their widows personally and loves each one of them. It knows that our ministers give their time and talents to our people, and sacrifice their earthly possessions for the advancement of the Kingdom of God. When they become aged or disabled they have little or nothing on which to live, and must look to our Church for their meat and drink. Few persons actually realize the great need of our veteran ministers, and how much they appreciate the small amount doled to them by our Church. Our Church owes our veteran ministers a living.

Ministerial Relief Never Adequate

The fact is that our Church has never cared adequately for our aged and disabled ministers and the widows of our ministers in the 180 years of Ministerial Relief work of our Church. Moreover, our Church people by their reduced giving compelled our Board of Ministerial Relief to reluctantly and regretfully reduce the Relief grants $5,105 in 1930 and $5,980 in 1931, or 16½% in the last two years. This worked a great hardship upon our deserving and uncomplaining veteran ministers and their widows. Let us not forsake our veterans of the cross.

Finances of Your Board

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief of the 1932 General Synod makes the following statement concerning the finances of your Board: "After examining the financial report of the Treasurer of the Board we believe that all the finances are in excellent condition. The six accounts of the Board are carefully kept, checked up, and balanced each month, and audited each quarter. The Board is economical in its management. The investments of the Board are as sound as good judgment can make them and every safeguard is thrown around them." The Laymen's Committee on Ministerial Relief of the General Synod also says: "The overhead expenses of the Board are paid out of the funds of the Board other than the contributions of our Church members." The Board has no debts.

The New Apportionment

Our veteran ministers are the unemployed servants of our Church. Much has been done for unemployment relief and all of us believe in it. Millions of dollars recently have been given to the unemployed in our country. Surely each member of our Church can give a few cents a year to care for our unemployed aged and disabled ministers and their widows. An average of 23 cents a year per member (six one-thousandths of a cent a day) will pay the new Apportionment of $80,137.20 for Ministerial Relief, adopted by the General Synod.

The New Financing of our Sustentation Fund

The General Synod approved of the following recommendations of its Laymen's Committee on Ministerial Relief, at its meeting in 1932: "In order that our Sustentation Fund may be fully financed, and the annuities of the Fund may be paid 100 per cent, we recommend that on and after January 1st, 1934, (a) Every member of the Fund shall pay his own dues. If a minister joins the Fund before the age of 33, his annual dues are less than $20 a year, or about 1 per cent of the average pastor's salary. (b) Each congregation annually shall pay its share of the amount needed to fully finance the Church's part of our Sustentation Fund, known as the Church's Reserve, which share shall be actuarially computed. (c) Due credit shall be given to each congregation for the amount of money it has raised in the Campaign for $1,328,550 to complete the Church's part of our Sustentation Fund, known as the Church's Reserve."

Ministerial Relief is Christian

Ministerial Relief is Scriptural. St. Paul says: "Even so hath the Lord ordained (commanded) that they which preach the Gospel should live of the Gospel." Read the whole of the ninth Chapter I Corinthians. Ministerial Relief is in accordance with the best social practices of the age. Our federal government, our states, and our larger corporations care well for their aged and disabled employees. Surely our Church will not be outchristianed by the world. Ministerial Relief moreover is ethical, in that it is simple justice; it is a first obligation of our Church; and it is greatly needed. Ministerial Relief has every Christian reason on its side and none against it. To give a stone to our veteran ministers instead of bread is unchristian.

Ministerial Relief Has Many Friends

The friends and supporters of the most worthy cause of Ministerial Relief have multiplied again and again. Every year Ministerial Relief wins many new friends. The thousands of friends of Ministerial Relief have made possible its remarkable growth. Our Church is deeply grateful to our pastors and people for their good will and their generous contributions for the care of our veteran ministers and the widows of our ministers.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the General Synod met in triennial session in Cleveland, Ohio, May 24-28, 1932.

We glean the following from the president's report:

"Progress has been made in the way of organizations during the triennium. We have reports of new Woman's Missionary Societies, Girls' Missionary Guilds and Mission Bands, and we rejoice in the success of it all. There has been a corresponding increase in the membership of the Guilds and Mission Bands, but the Woman's Missionary Society has suffered a loss in the large decrease in members. Nevertheless, we have every reason to rejoice and be exceedingly glad because, as you will find, every obligation to our Mission Boards has been met, every pledge has been paid in full and the Treasurer's report shows a substantial balance in the treasury. We have a substantial balance in the promotional fund, an increase in the permanent funds and large amounts ready for buildings we have promised to build. And this is true in times like these. We thank God for the loyal supporters of this work; for the women, the girls and the children who have permitted the work to be little disturbed by conditions that have been distressing—not only to our nation—but to the entire civilized world. We have every reason to look forward to the coming years with fresh courage, new hope and increased faith. God is in the Heavens. He still rules—all is well."

It was of special interest to note the organization of a Missionary Society in Shenchow, China, among the women of the Bible Woman's Training School and the Marie Anna Stucki Society among the teachers of our Indian School at Neillsville, Wis.

The greatest interest was roused during the triennium in the Reading Course. Books of inspirational character, missionary adventure, biography, fiction and those of general interest are included in the course. Reports show that 17,969 women and 5,407 girls took part in this phase of our work. We believe "that we shall work better all our days because of the exercise of mind, the enlargement of vision, the deepening of character and the power poured into our personalities" as a result of our journeys into book land.

The Thank Offering Department reported total receipts of $152,944. "Each year more boxes are used, more prayers of gratitude are offered, more people are giving. It is evident that more of our women, girls and children are interested in expressing their gratitude to God through this channel."

The Life Membership Department has at present enrolled 1,058 persons and 850 in memoriam, representing a fund of $47,700, the interest of which is used in promotional work.

Christian Citizenship is being stressed at the monthly meetings and 3,966 women read the literature provided by the department last year.

The Stewardship Department has co-operated with the Stewardship Commission of General Synod in every way possible. 6,138 women read the Stewardship Packet and 1,877 are enrolled in the "Fellowship of Stewardship." "Every Christian a Steward" will solve the problems that confront church and state today.

The Department of Printing has seen to the printing of 486 different new and reprinted leaflets, programs, minutes, prayer calendars, messages, invitations and cards.

Most interesting were the reports received from the Indian Committee. The enrollment of the school last year was 108. Many applied who had to be refused entrance for lack of space. At the beginning of the school year 20% of the children were undernourished, consequently underweight. By December all but one were up to and above normal.

The Woman's Missionary Society has a part in all our denominational and many interdenominational projects; holding membership in the Woman's Boards of Foreign Missions, Council of Women for Home Missions, Advisory Council of Missionary Education, Committee of Ginling College, Winona, Lake Geneva and Wilson College Schools of Missions.

The Department of Organization and Membership reports 45 classical organizations, 752 local woman's societies with a membership of 22,347; 431 Girls' Missionary Guilds with a membership of 6,232; and 297 Mission Bands enrolling 8,667 children.

The treasurer's report showed a total of all moneys received throughout the triennium from woman's societies $325,592; from Guilds $41,008 and from Mission Bands $12,143; a total of $378,744.

The fields in China, Japan, Iraq and our own country are white to the harvest, the laborers now, as in the time of Christ, are few. The call still rings out: "Come over and help us."

We challenge every woman of the Reformed Church to answer the call during the coming year by allying herself and her children with the Woman's Missionary Society.

400TH BIRTHDAY

ANNIVERSARY

THE SUMMER MISSIONARY CONFERENCES

BETHANY PARK SUMMER MISSIONARY CONFERENCE, 1932

In co-operation with the Department of Missionary Education, Rev. A. V. Casselman, D.D., Secretary, eight Summer Missionary Conferences were held throughout the Church last year at the following places: Bethany Park, Brooklyn, Indiana; Hood College, Frederick, Maryland; Heidelberg College, Tiffin, Ohio; Shady Side Academy, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Catawba College, Salisbury, North Carolina; Ursinus College, Collegeville, Pa.; Mission House, Plymouth, Wisconsin; and Zion Church, Buffalo, New York. These Conferences were attended by a great host of the young people of the Church; although, of course, there was the usual number of especially interested representatives of the Woman's Missionary Society. However, the young people were in the decided majority in every Conference. This is as it should be. If the Reformed Church is to take its place in the modern Christian world, it is essential that the young people of the Church who are to be the leaders of tomorrow should be trained in Christian world-mindedness. To do this they must know the problem of the church in America that they may make their proper contribution to the Christian life of America. Then, too, they must realize that Foreign Missions is just an administrative name for international Christianity. The delegates who attended the Summer Missionary Conferences of last year were of one opinion in expressing their appreciation of the fact that attendance at the Summer Conferences had made them bigger and broader and better Christians. No one can be a Christian in these modern days whose vision and interests are not world-wide.

It was feared that the financial depression of the past year would result in diminished attendance at the Summer Conferences of 1932; but these fears proved to be unfounded. To be sure, the attendance at some of the Conferences was, in some instances, slightly smaller than the preceding year; but a number of the Conferences were larger than those of last year and, in consequence, the general average of attendance at the Conference was larger than ever. Never in the history of the Summer Conferences in the Reformed Church were the delegates so carefully selected or so earnest in purpose. This was manifest in almost perfect attendance at the class sessions in practically every Conference. The delegates seemed to realize that there was not only an economic but also a spiritual crisis to be faced at the present time and they were there to meet it with intelligence and strength of purpose.

Two very timely and appropriate themes of study for the Reformed Church claimed the attention of the Summer Missionary Conference delegates and will through them challenge the congregations of the Church during the coming year. The Foreign Mission theme was "China," and there is no more important or engaging subject before the Church at the present time than the crisis in missionary work in China. China is the largest, and in many respects, the most important mission field in the world. The missionary problem in this nation commands the immediate attention and sympathy of the whole Christian Church; and here we, as a Reformed Church, come into most intimate and perplexing contact with one of the strategic missionary situations of recent years. It is to be hoped that the subject of China will engage the serious and studious attention of the Church during the opening months of the year 1933.

The Home Mission theme was "The North American Indian," and this topic was studied with keen interest and afforded unparalleled opportunity for the presentation of the work of our Winnebago Indian Mission in Wisconsin. This theme was made especially interesting to the delegates of the Summer Missionary Conferences because of the fact that the text-book for the young people was "an intensely interesting study of the history of the Winnebago Indians," to quote "The Missionary Review of the World," entitled, "The Winnebago Finds a Friend," by Arthur V. Caselman. This book should find its place as a reading book in every Sunday School class of the Reformed Church during the coming year.

Through the influence of the young people who were delegates to the Summer Missionary Conferences the congregations of the Reformed Church ought to be richer in world-wide experience and more thoroughly prepared to meet and solve present-day problems both at home and abroad.

At Bowling Green, Kentucky

Eastern Synod is doing an interesting bit of educational work in the Bowling Green Academy, Kentucky, an institution for colored youth in the Southland. Many friends are sending small contributions for this work to Dr. Paul S. Leinbach, Editor of the "Messenger," who is chairman of the Synodical Committee.

Preparing for Church Membership

The Church is much interested in the new Manual prepared by our Board of Christian Education, to be used as supplemental to the Heidelberg Catechism, in the preparation of young people for confirmation and membership in the Church. All who have seen it declare it fills a long-felt need.

Man-Making

We are all blind until we see
That in the human plan
Nothing is worth the making, if
It does not make the man.

Why build these cities glorious
If man unbuilt goes?
In vain we build the work, unless
The builder also grows.

—EDWIN MARKHAM

REFORMED CHURCHMEN'S LEAGUE

J. Q. TRUXAL,
Secretary,

REFORMED
LEAGUE

The Reformed Churchmen's League was officially constituted by the General Synod of 1929 as "a duly authorized agency of the Reformed Church in the U. S." and was instructed to report to each regular meeting of the General Synod. The League was the result of the development of the work that had been done by the Layman's Missionary Movement of our Church from December 1908 until 1929. As the years passed it had become more and more clear that there was need of a definite organization whose task should be arousing and interesting all the men of all the congregations, and challenging them to do their full duty in the Church.

During the first triennium the new organization put its Constitution into definite shape and prepared for organization of Chapters in the congregations. Elder J. Q. Truxal, who was First Vice-President of the General Synod and a member of the Board of Foreign Missions, was chosen Secretary. With the fullest co-operation of his Executive Committee he laid a solid foundation for the League.

At the first denominational Convention, held at Harrisburg in November 1931, there were 565 registered delegates and several hundred additional men attending some of the sessions. It was one of the most successful conventions in our denominational history. At that Convention, a General Committee, made up of representatives from most of the Classes, was elected and this General Committee elected an Executive Committee, which is largely responsible for the promotion of the League.

Chapters have been formed in congregations of twenty-nine Classes within the bounds of six Synods. The Chapters meet monthly and their meetings have been surprisingly interesting. The major activities of a Chapter of the League are along the lines of Evangelism, Stewardship and Missions, but the monthly meetings cover a wide range of topics. They have been exceedingly helpful not only to the men of the congregation, but to the pastor and the entire congregation.

The League was financed during the first triennium by voluntary contributions, ranging from a few dollars to a thousand dollars per year, from a small number of deeply interested men. The Chapters of the League contribute 50c per member per year toward the general budget, but this amount is not sufficient to pay the costs of the materials that are sent to the Chapters month by month.

The General Synod of 1932 commended the Reformed Churchmen's League in the highest terms. It expressed real regret that it was not able to provide funds for a few years through an Apportionment, but recommended the League to the support of individuals and churches. The Executive Committee of the General Synod recognizes the importance of this work for and among men and hopes that funds to carry it on can be provided.

The General Synod of 1932 adopted the following resolutions:

- (1) That congregations be encouraged and urged to organize Chapters of the Reformed Churchmen's League.
- (2) That congregations which have brotherhoods, ushers' associations or other organizations of men, be encouraged to organize these as Chapters in order that they may become a part of the larger fellowship of men's work of the denomination. Where there are several men's organizations in a congregation, whose activities in whole or in part may be regarded as of great importance, these may be preserved as departments of the Chapter of the League.
- (3) That Classical Leagues be organized as soon as possible after there are five Chapters in congregations of the Classis.
- (4) That the Reformed Churchmen's League continue to work in co-operation with the Executive Committee of the General Synod.

CENTRAL PUBLISHING HOUSE, CLEVELAND, OHIO

When the triennial convention of General Synod's W. M. S. brought women from all parts of our land and Church to Cleveland, last May, multitudes of them expressed joyous surprise that our Church owns so great a publishing plant. Members of our Church who motor westward or eastward should treat themselves to this same surprise, by stopping off long enough to visit the plant at 2969-75 West 25th street. This institution was born out of a home missionary need, when those who pioneered westward, (especially our German missionaries) in the 50's of the 19th century, felt that Christian printed matter must be obtained.

In 1858 a small group of ministers, meeting at Galion, O., formed themselves into a Buchverein (Book Society), each member paying a $5.00 fee. Two years later, Dr. H. J. Ruetenik reported that $140 had been received, $120 expended. The first purpose to import books from Germany, soon gave way to the conviction that the needs of American Christians must be satisfied by books "made in America." Northwest Synod at its 2nd annual meeting took over the work which had until then been of a voluntary nature. The income of $140 (in 1860) had by 1869 grown to a publishing house with assets of $11,639, and a net balance of $3,000.

A German Church paper, "The Evangelist," early became imperative for our westward-pushing Church. It was not immediately a paying proposition; the situation improved when our eastern German organ, the "Kirchenzeitung," merged with the Evangelist in 1874, adding 1,000 to the circulation. Naturally, the earlier work of Central Publishing House was exclusively German.

English, which was gradually introduced into its work, received a tremendous impetus when "The Christian World," was relocated from Dayton, O., to the Cleveland House, accompanied by the western depository of General Synod's Sunday School Board. A further increase in Central's English publication work came about when the printing of General Synod's W. M. S. was transferred, including the relocation of the Western W. M. S. Depository, from Tiffin to Cleveland. Central Publishing House is now predominantly English. Besides the "Kirchenzeitung" it issues a German S. S. quarterly, a S. S. illustrated paper, and besides a few parochial papers that are bilingual. Little else in German now comes from its press.

Since the new Ohio Synod was organized by the merging of old Ohio and Central Synods, the new Synod has been an active partner in Central Publishing House, along with Northwest, Mid-west and German Synod of the East. The rights of the last named, by merger with Eastern Synod, have been absorbed by the "mother" Synod. This leaves out only two Synods—Potomac and Pittsburgh—which have no proprietary rights and responsibilities in this House. General Synod is on record, that this interest should be merged with its Board of Christian Education.

Great credit is due to the first "agent" of Central Publishing House, Dr. H. J. Ruetenik, who was also "The Evangelist's" editor. When he gave up that position, Rev. August Becker became the conservative but successful business manager. He in turn was succeeded by a layman, Mr. Peter Wetzel, who worked his way up from the bottom, being an office boy who gradually became Dr. Becker's right hand man. The work has greatly expanded under his vigorous management, the building plant having been nearly doubled in capacity, six years ago.

Dr. Ruetenik was succeeded, editorially, by Drs. L. Praikshatis, G. Dolch, and C. F. Heyl who is the present editor of the "Kirchenzeitung." Upon "The Christian World's" transfer to Cleveland, Dr. J. H. Bomberger became its editor. Dr. J. H. String tided over the interim from the former's illness and death, until Dr. Henry Gekeler took editorial charge, about 13 years ago. Martin Luther, so report goes, once threw his inkpot at the devil; that is what Central Publishing House has been doing for 75 years.

WE ARE PROUD OF OUR SCHOOLS

The educational institutions under the auspices of our Church, as listed in this ALMANAC AND YEAR BOOK, not only constitute an impressive list of 20 schools at home and abroad, but bring to every thoughtful reader a remarkable story of sacrificial devotion. We doubt if any denomination the size of ours can catalogue seminaries, colleges and academies of higher types. The quality of these schools is maintained not only by the self-denial of their faithful supporters throughout our own and other Churches, but also by the fidelity of the faculties, often but meagerly supported, who give their best to uphold the finest traditions and to advance the standards of these institutions of learning. The endowment of these schools of the Church should be greatly increased, so they may be enabled in the future, as in the past, to render a service that is second to none in the educational world. We are thankful for the generous men and women who have remembered this basic work of education by gifts and legacies, and we pray that many more may be moved to make provision in their benevolent giving and in their wills for this cause.

OUR OPHANS' HOMES

BABIES IN THE IRA S. REED COTTAGE, BETHANY

BETHANY ORPHANS' HOME, WOMELSDORF, PA.

Rev. Henry E. Gebhard, Superintendent

Bethany Home is providing for more children than at any time in the history of the Home. It is made possible by the excellent donation of the Ira S. Reed Cottage (for babies). The Spiese or Service Building has been completed, and is filling a great need in the Industrial Department.

We are busy making necessary repairs and improvements. This will require one year to complete, and the results of the work are not only seen but are felt in the general atmosphere of the Home.

Contributions have decreased 18%, or a total of $6,400, due to the depression. It is becoming a great problem to provide for more children on a reduced income. Our employees have received a reduction in their wages, but this will not meet the decrease.

ST. PAUL'S ORPHANS' AND OLD FOLKS' HOME, GREENVILLE, PA.

Rev. A. M. Keifer, D.D., Superintendent

During 1932 St. Paul's had some real difficulties to meet. The contributions from churches and individuals for its work were $5,582.78 less than they were in 1928 while the number of children under its care increased from 95 to 116.

This situation demanded drastic action. It became necessary for the superintendent, the matrons, and other employees to make still further sacrifices; and to cut the other maintenance expenses to the lowest possible point consistent with the proper care of the children. The children were also asked and taught to exercise the strictest economy. The results have been very satisfactory and in addition, our friends throughout the Church have spoken and written encouraging words. As a result our faith in the friends of unfortunate children and helpless old people has not weakened. On the contrary, the writer firmly believes that our churches and individual friends will do their very best to support this blessed work during 1933, and by reason of the sacrifices made we will all be better able to do the work committed to our care.

St. Paul's work for the old folks is passing through trials similar to those through which its work for children is passing. Just now this work needs the support of our people. Our prayer is that the time may soon come when larger and more suitable quarters may be had for this work. Rev. A. M. Keifer, D.D., Supt., Box 541, Greenville, Pa., continues to be the Financial Secretary.

NEW ANNA BELLE EVERHART DINING HALL

HOFFMAN

On November 24, 1931, we moved into our new dining hall. It was a big moving. To move kitchen equipment, dining room supplies and continue to have all the meals ready for 80 hungry children and employees is no ordinary task. We ate our breakfast in the room in Emmanuel Cottage, which was our dining room for 12 years, cleared the tables, washed all the dishes, etc., and began the big moving; prepared the dinner in the new kitchen and ate our noon meal at 11:45 a.m.

Our new dining hall is the gift of Miss Anna Belle Everhart, of the Church of the Incarnation, Newport, Pa. The new kitchen was furnished by the Woman's Sewing Society of the Evangelical Church, Frederick, Md. The new Westinghouse electric range is a gift from the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Home.

During the past year, we cared for 80 dependent boys and girls. This Orphanage is the property of the Synod of the Potomac; is governed and controlled by the Synod and provides a home for the dependent children of southern Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia and part of West Virginia. We must depend on the Christmas offerings, special gifts, donations of canned fruits, vegetables, etc., and legacies and annuities for our Daily Bread.

We plead for the prayers and the continued, liberal support of the Church and friends of dependent, fatherless, motherless and homeless children.

NAZARETH ORPHANS' HOME, ROCKWELL, N. C.

Ray P. Lyerly, Superintendent

We are very thankful to our Heavenly Father for the many blessings we have received during the past year. We also wish to extend our thanks to the many friends of Nazareth Home for their co-operation and assistance in the past. Their generosity and kindness have made it possible for this great work to go forward with rapid strides.

I wish to take this opportunity to commend and to thank Rev. W. H. McNairy for the splendid service he has rendered to the Home, and to the advancement of humanity, during the nine years of his superintendency of Nazareth Home. He has unselfishly exerted his influence in building up the Home, thus making it possible for more of those boys and girls, who have been unfortunate in losing parents, to live in an environment that has a tendency to promote their faith in God and to prepare them for life.

At present we have 49 children in Nazareth Home. Our equipment has gradually grown until it is now conservatively valued at approximately $100,000. The farm has been providing much in the way of food for the children; however, dry weather is at the present time cutting our yield. The wheat yield for this year has been reduced over last year owing to the season, but is, I believe, nearly sufficient to furnish bread for the children.

The income of Nazareth Home has fallen off for

NEW SUPERINTENDENT,
NAZARETH

a number of years. This naturally curtails our activities, and makes it harder for us to supply the necessities of life and to give the children the opportunities enjoyed in the past. We plead with our friends to continue to give us of their goodwill and their substance, in order that our work can continue unhampered.

Owing to the great economic depression that has gripped the nation, we are finding it harder year by year, to secure employment for, and to place children leaving the Home. Any assistance in this way that our friends can render will be greatly appreciated.

FORT WAYNE ORPHANS' HOME, FORT WAYNE, IND.

Rev. J. F. Tapy, Superintendent

FT. WAYNE

Fort Wayne Orphans' Home, located at Fort Wayne, Ind., reaches its 50th anniversary in 1933. Thus for a half-century this institution has served the children of a portion of the Reformed Church constituency in such a way as to be a God-send to many. Should not an institution engaged in such an important work be given special recognition on its 50th anniversary?

The three features of our family life that are telling on our boys and girls are first: our Bible training under Rev. and Mrs. C. S. Thompson, our instructors in Bible in our summer school; second: our musical training under the able direction of Mr. J. M. Henley, our instructor in music; third: our high school advantages in such an outstanding school as North Side High School, Ft. Wayne. These advantages, supplemented by Christian care and oversight on the part of our employees, put the privileges of our children on a high plane.

A Prayer for Love

Give me the gift of loving! I will claim
No other gift from the Lord of Birth,
For he who loves needs no high-sounding name,
Nor power, nor treasure to proclaim his worth;
His soul has hit at Life's Immortal flame
A lamp that may illumine all the earth.

ELSA BARKER

FAIRVIEW PARK HOSPITAL, CLEVELAND, OHIO

Rev. Philip Vollmer, Jr., Superintendent

Fairview at this writing is still able every month to care for about 40 free patients for an average hospital stay of 10 days each.

It was for this work, in large part, that the fathers called the old "Verein Fuer Christliche Kranken und Armenpflege" into being. We also serve the great middle class, the white-collared poor, at rates below cost and within reach of their purses. With dividends and wages so far below normal, Government is being called upon to carry an increasingly larger part of the relief burden. 70% of our poor relief, that is, food, clothing, coal and rent, is now paid out of public funds. The indigent sick, however, though in legal theory the charges of the state, will, for many years to come, look to the charitable institutions of the Church for adequate medical care. Of Cleveland's 3,008 hospital beds, 51% are owned and operated by various Protestant, Jewish and Catholic organizations. The various churches own and operate 132,796 beds throughout the country, at a yearly cost of around $125,000,000.

Last year we rendered 4,450 days of free care and 11,576 visits in the free dispensary at a cost to us of $25,164.15. We are ready at all times to hospitalize, without cost to the patient, the indigent sick. Gifts to support this work are earnestly solicited.

THE HOME FOR THE AGED OF THE REFORMED CHURCH, UPPER SANDUSKY, OHIO

The Home for the Aged of the Reformed Church, located at Upper Sandusky, Ohio, is the only institution for the care of aged dependents of the Church west of Pennsylvania. This Home is the child of the three western synods, and receives its whole support from the one hundred thousand members of the church in that territory. The present facilities provide for the accommodation of twenty-eight persons, and at this time all rooms are occupied. The residents in the Home come from widely extended territory, yet many portions of the area in these synods are not represented by any one in the Home. The population of the Home is largely made up of women. To meet the requirements of the state laws, and to supply more room for residents, the Home should be provided with a strictly men's ward at the earliest date possible. The ages of our residents extend all the way from the minimum, sixty-five, to ninety. A husband and wife, now non-agenarians, are still with us, having been in the Home since its beginning in 1918. The picture of this interesting couple appeared in last year's Year Book.

The world wide depressing financial situation is giving us our share of difficulties. We are compelled to refinance our building debt obligations. Our general support has fallen off to a great extent. With our increased numbers our expense has gradually increased, in spite of the reduction in cost of many items of necessity. There must be a more concerted and wide spread effort made by the supporting congregations to keep this institution going. All churches respond to the appeals made to support the local charities, and prevent distress at home, and it is highly important that congregations should share their resources with this Home, that now provides for those who were once the workers in, and supporters of our churches.

Mr. Troy A. Dahn, 216 Hathaway St., Toledo, Ohio, is, and has been secretary and treasurer of this Home since its establishment, eighteen years ago. Rev. John F. Hawk, Lafayette, Ind., is the president of the Board of Trustees. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. P. Troup are in their sixth year as Superintendent and Matron.

PHOEBE HOME, ALLENTOWN, PA.

Owned and operated by the Eastern Synod

Rev. F. H. Moyer, Superintendent

North view of the new Administration Building, which is to be dedicated on Thursday, June 8, 1933. The building cost $165,000.00, not including furniture. It contains kitchen, dining-room, assembly room, infirmary, bedrooms on second, third, and fourth floors, also central heating plant.

The Home's capacity being now largely increased, a corresponding increase in the income for maintenance is necessary. The Endowment must be similarly increased. The present Endowment of over $100,000.00 came mainly through legacies from friends of the Home. Many others should follow their example. To give to the homeless aged and infirm what is left at the end of the earthly sojourn blesses the givers as well as those who receive.

REFORMED CHURCH HOME FOR THE AGED, WYNCOTE, PA.

Rev. Charles B. Alspach, D.D., Superintendent

This Home, now in the third year of its ministry to the aged of our denomination, has its capacity of 24 guests. We have had the pleasure of making the closing days of 11 additional aged people happy and comfortable.

It is a real joy to us to know that the members of our Churches are beginning to see that this work rests on a Biblical foundation. It is not merely a duty to care for the aged, but it is a high Christian privilege. You will recall this is what Jesus did when He was on the cross in the provision that He made for His mother as He asked John to care for her. See John 19:25-27. Joseph was not ashamed to introduce his aged father to Pharaoh and then arrange to have him live in the most pleasant and fruitful part of Egypt. Read James 1:27; Isaiah 1:17; 58:7; I John 3:16, 17. Some one said recently that homes for the aged are now a social necessity.

We are glad to report the receipt of a bequest of almost $9,000 from the estate of Mr. N. N. Rosenberger, who was for many years an elder in Trinity Reformed Church, Philadelphia. This has been placed in our endowment fund and it will be a great help to us in our work. It is our earnest hope that, as you read these lines, you will, if possible, remember this fine work in your will.

If you could read the letters that we receive and listen to the appeals that are made to us to make provision for the admission of deserving and worthy people into our Home you would not hesitate for one moment in doing all that you can financially and otherwise for the advancement of this worthy and needy work. Assist us in enlarging our borders. There are literally hundreds of aged people saying with united voice, "Come and help us."

OLD FOLKS' HOME OF THE POTOMAC SYNOD OF THE REFORMED CHURCH

1805 Virginia Avenue, Hagerstown, Maryland

Homewood was made possible by the legacy of the late Mr. George C. Pearson, who died in October, 1929. The property, with its four acres of ground, was purchased in March, 1932, and opened for guests in September, 1932. Ten persons are now in the Home.

TENNENT COLLEGE OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

(Continuing the Philadelphia School for Christian Workers of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches)

CLINTON H. GILLINGHAM, D.D., President

A new name, but the same affiliations with the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches. New educational standards, but the same allegiance to Jesus Christ and His gospel. New developments in materials and methods, but the same ideals of thoroughness of training and readiness for service.

TENNENT COLLEGE OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION is located in Philadelphia, Pa., on Spruce Street, between 11th and 12th. It provides college training in the Bible and religious education, for directors of religious education, pastors' assistants, church secretaries, deaconesses, and the like. The four-year course leads to the degree of Bachelor of Religious Education. The three-year course leads to a diploma of graduation without degree. Graduation from high school is required for admission to the Freshmen class.

The need for such a type of education as TENNENT COLLEGE OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION provides was never greater. The College pledges to the Church a careful selection of Faculty and students, and the maintenance of the highest standards of excellence in scholarship and character. It asks the Church for financial support, and for its patronage in sending its young people to the College for training.

Rev. I. M. Bachman, Ph.D.

Rev. D. F. Boomershine

ANDREAS, REV. HENRY, was born Oct. 12, 1857, in Highland Park, Ill. His parents emigrated from southern Germany in the early fifties. He received his early training in the schools of Waukegan and Chicago. In 1875 he entered the Mission House, graduating from the College in 1879, and from the Seminary in 1882, and was ordained the same year. He began his ministry in Waukegan, where he served for 6 months. In 1883 he went to LaCrosse, Wis., to take charge of St. John's Church, continuing as its pastor for 7 years. In 1890 he accepted a call from Trinity Church in Mormon Coulee, near LaCrosse, where he was active for 42 years until his illness last November. He was loved and honored as pastor and teacher. On Jan. 19, 1932, his useful and active life was closed. Funeral services were held on Jan. 22 in Trinity Church, Mormon Coulee. The "Frohsinn," a glee club which was founded by Mr. Andreas some 47 years ago, sang two appropriate numbers.

BACHMAN, REV. IRWIN M., Ph.D., was born in Lynn Township, Nov. 10, 1865, a son of Mrs. Catherine (Follweiler) and the late Walter S. Bachman. He completed his elementary education in the schools of Lynnport. He was confirmed in the Jacksonville Charge in 1882. He entered Franklin and Marshall College in his sophomore year and in his junior year entered Ursinus College, where he graduated in 1892. In 1894 he graduated from the Ursinus Theological School and was ordained into the ministry at East Mauch Chunk. Dr. Bachman's first charge was the First Church, East Mauch Chunk, where he labored for 8 years. He then accepted a call to the Numidia Charge, Columbia Co., including the congregation in Millgrove and served for 11 years. In 1913 he went to St. Paul's Church, Northampton, and there accomplished his greatest work in the ministry. Up to the time of his first illness in 1930 he never missed a service n all the charges he served. After a ministry of 38 years he fell asleep on May 2, 1932, aged 66 years, 5 months, 22 days, at his home, Northampton, Pa. He married Emily Mumme, of East Mauch Chunk, in 1898. From this union there were 6 children, 4 of whom survive with his widow. They are: Wilbur, Catawissa; Earl, Allentown; Paul, Northampton; and Martha, at home. Funeral services were held in St. Paul's Church, Northampton, on May 6. The remains were laid to rest in the Evergreen Cemetery at East Mauch Chunk.

BOOMERSHINE, REV. DANIEL FRANKLIN, was born Jan. 14, 1866, in Montgomery Co., O., and entered his eternal home Feb. 20, at 11 P.M., at his home in Maquoketa, Iowa. Graduating from Heidelberg University in 1891 he entered the Theological Seminary of the Reformed Church in Lancaster, Pa., and was ordained to the ministry in May, 1894. In July, 1894, he went to Maquoketa as a missionary for the Board of Home Missions. His instructions were to build a congregation of the Reformed Church here, in connection with the two country Churches, one at Union and the other at Buckhorn. That his labors were blessed of God was shown when on May 20, 1900, the cornerstone was laid for a beautiful Church, and on Nov. 11, 1900, the edifice was dedicated to the service of the Triune God. He now had 3 congregations to serve. And about this time he organized another at Lost Nation, Ia., about 15 miles southwest of Maquoketa. Some years later another group of Reformed Church people sought his service as pastor at Massilon, Ia., about 10 miles southwest of Lost Nation, and he served here also for a short time. On Jan. 1, just after he began his long and useful pastorate, he was united in marriage with Miss Jessie Gregg of Tiffin, O., who survives him. He leaves also two brothers. Funeral services were held in Maquoketa on Feb. 23.

BRAUN, REV. JOHN BAPTISTE, was born Nov. 21, 1842, at Gengenheim, Baden, Germany, and died on Feb. 11, attaining the age of over 89. He was orphaned of both parents at the age of 14. He worked his way through school and served for a time as instructor in the St. Chrischona School, Switzerland, graduating later from a theological school in Geneva, where he was also assistant pastor of a Reformed Church. He came to America in 1870, and was formally ordained pastor at Prairie du Chien, Ia. Here he was married to Miss Renee Nicole, she having left Geneva for Paris in the last train during the Franco-Prussian War. Both became naturalized as American citizens a few years later. Rev. Mr. Braun served pastorates in Iowa, Ohio, Nebraska, Oregon and California. His last charge was Gruetli-Duncan, where he resigned in 1923. These congregations celebrated the Golden Wedding of the Brauns in 1920, presenting Mr. and Mrs. Braun with a purse of nearly $1,000. The widow survives, as also do 2 sons; 3 children had preceded their father in death. Mr. Braun was president of Nebraska Classis for about 25 years. Many members of the two Churches served by Rev. Mr. Braun for 34 years attended the funeral services. Interment was made at Columbus, Neb., on Feb. 14.

FLEDDERJOHANN, REV. ADOLPH R., was born near New Knoxville, O., Aug. 19, 1895, and was dedicated to the Lord in baptism. He was confirmed and received into the membership of the Church at New Knoxville. He graduated from the Mission House College in 1917, and 3 years later from the Seminary. He first served Linton, Ind., Church for 5 years, and then Zion Church at Decatur, Ind., for 7½ years. Returning in an automobile from the annual meeting of Mid-West Synod at Freeport, Ill., accompanied by Rev. R. B. Meckstroth, his car was struck by a New York Central freight train. Seriously injured, he was rushed to a hospital at LaPorte, Ind., where he passed into the Great Beyond a few hours later, on May 12, at the age of 36 years. The body was removed to Decatur, lay in state at the Church to which he had given 7½ years from the best part of his life. Ft. Wayne Classis had charge of the funeral at Decatur on Monday morning, May 16. The funeral cortege then proceeded to New Knoxville, O., where the concluding service was held in the Reformed Church. The body was laid in the "Pilger Ruhe" Cemetery near New Knoxville. In 1920 he was united in marriage to Matilda Meckstroth. To this union 5 children were born. Of these a pair of twin boys, Gilbert and Milbert, preceded their father in death. He is survived by his widow and 3 daughters (Virginia, Letha and Roberta); also by his mother, 2 sisters and 3 brothers.

FRANK, REV. MILTON F., was born at Uniontown, O., Jan. 23, 1851, and died on Mar. 30, 1932, at Canton, O. In June, 1875, he graduated from Heidelberg College, Tiffin, O., and from Heidelberg Seminary in May, 1877. He was ordained in January, 1878, by Miami Classis. In his first charge at Farmersville, O., he was very successful. After serving this Church for 6 years, Mr. Frank accepted a call to Highland Ave. Church, East End, Pittsburgh, Pa., and Trinity Church, Wilkesburg, Pa., where he labored for several years. His health failed and he was compelled to retire, never overcoming his throat trouble. Mr. Frank was married twice, and one child by his first marriage, Mr. Earle P. Frank, resides at Akron, O., as well as his wife, Mrs. Cora D. Frank.

HART, REV. HARVEY L., was born Aug. 12, 1858, near Union City, Ind. He graduated from Bonebrake Theological Seminary at Dayton, O., in 1884 and was ordained to the Gospel ministry in that year. After a brief United Brethren pastorate in Illinois, he transferred to the Reformed Church, serving in Reformed charges for more than 40 years. He married Mrs. Blanch K. Walborn, Sept. 12, 1911. His longest pastorate was, perhaps, that in the Valley Charge, just south of Dayton, where he served for 9 years. Other charges served were at West Alexandria; Wooster; Greenville (twice); St. Paris; Hudson, Ind.; Lisbon; Spencerville and Sugar Grove—all but one in Ohio. He died at Sugar Grove, Mar. 10, being found dead in bed. Funeral services were held in the home at Sugar Grove on Mar. 12, and burial was made the next day at St. Paris, O. He is survived by his wife and 3 sons, Russel, Frank and Thomas, and a step-son, J. R. Walborn.

JANETT, REV. JOHN J., D.D., died at Sheboygan, Wis., on June 15, aged 92 years, 6 months and 21 days. He was born in Switzerland and received his early education by attending the "Kantonschule" and the Teachers' College. In 1867 he came to America and at once began to prepare himself for the Gospel ministry, attending a small private seminary in Illinois. He completed his theological training by private studies under the guidance of Rev. Mr. Rettig (then serving Churches in Iowa), and was licensed and ordained by old Iowa Classis in 1869. He began his ministry as a missionary in Iowa. His first regular pastorate was in 2 congregations near Clay City, Ind. He then went to Evansville, Ind., Freeport, Ill., and in 1891 was called to the pastorate of Zion Church, Sheboygan, Wis., serving until his retirement in 1906. He was married to Ursula Buol, Monticello, Ia., in 1870, and this union was blessed with 3 daughters and 2 sons. In 1903 his wife passed to her reward and his oldest daughter and both sons preceded him in death; the youngest son, Rev. J. P. Janett, died a few months ago. In 1905 he married Elizabeth Ambuehl, Monticello, Ia., with whom he spent 11 happy years; she passed on after a prolonged illness. Funeral services were held on June 17 at 9 A.M. in the home. The body was then taken to Zion Church where at 2 P.M. a public service was held. Burial in Wildwood Cemetery.

JUNGEBLUT, REV. JOHN FREDERICK, was born at Brakelsiek in Lippe-Detmold, Germany, son of F. W. H. and Emma (Deppe) Jungeblut, who were members of the Reformed Church there. After his mother's early death, he and his father came to Bay, Mo., where they united with the German-Presbyterian congregation. He received his preparation for the ministry in the Presbyterian Seminary at Dubuque, Ia., and also at Princeton. His first charge was in Milwaukee, followed by pastorate in Alexander, Neb., and Accadia, Ia. He became a minister of the Reformed Church in 1903, taking the pastorate of the Eureka, S. Dak., Charge. Rev. Mr. Jungeblut served the independent Zion Reformed Church at Lodi, Cal., for over 20 years, until his death, at the age of 72 years, one month and 10 days, on Dec. 19, 1931. Six days before, he had preached his last sermon. Preceding this pastorate he served the neighboring rural Hope Reformed Church. He was married May 27, 1890, to Miss Anna Stark, a sister of Rev. Jacob Stark. Their surviving children are: Mrs. Henry Mettler, Calvin, Mrs. Theodore Bender and Lama. Mrs. Jungeblut died in August, 1913. Sixteen years later he was married again, and is survived by his widow, Mrs. Louise (Berrett) Jungeblut, the above named children, 3 brothers and 3 sisters in Missouri, and a sister in Germany. The funeral was held in Zion Church.

KIEFFER, REV. MOSES AUGUSTUS, B.D., son of Jonas and Elmina (Brandt) Kieffer, deceased, was born Dec. 31, 1869, near Mercersburg, Pa., and died after an illness of 6 weeks, at the parsonage of the Wilhelm Charge, June 26, 1932, aged 62 years, 5 months and 25 days. He was the 3rd son in a family of 7 sons and 7 daughters. He entered Mercersburg College in the fall of 1890, a member of the last class sent out by that institution under its charter as a college. Here he prepared himself for entrance to the sophomore class of Franklin and Marshall College, graduating in 1896. He graduated from the Theological Seminary at Lancaster in 1899. He was licensed to preach the Gospel by Mercersburg Classis. His first charge was Olivet, Reading, Pa. In addition he served the following charges: Timberville, Va., 1901-10; Everett, Pa., 1910-14; St. John's, Schuylkill Haven, Pa., 1914-21; Mifflinburg, Pa., 1921-26; Alexandria, Pa., 1926-30; Wilhelm Charge, 1930 to the time of his death. June 29, 1899, he was married to Miss Elizabeth Hagerman, of Williamson, Pa., who survives him, together with 2 daughters, Mrs. Sarah Spigler, Hagerstown, Md.; and Elizabeth, at home; one son, Walter H., also at home. Funeral services were held at St. Paul's Church, June 28, in charge of the officers of Classis. The following morning the funeral cortege left by automobile for Mercersburg, Pa., where another service was held in Trinity Church. Burial was made in the Mercersburg Cemetery.

KNOLL, REV. LLOYD M., member of the staff of the Physics Department, Central High School, Philadelphia, and joint inventor of the radio compass, died on Jan. 4, 1932, in the Osteopathic Hospital, following an illness of 3 days, at the age of 54 years. Until last year, Rev. Mr. Knoll was pastor of St. Peter's Church, Pikeland, near Phoenixville. When he became pastor of this Church in 1910 its membership was only 22, and when he resigned the membership totaled 400. He was a native of Reading and a graduate of Ursinus College and Theological Seminary. He took several post-graduate courses at the University of Pennsylvania. Prior to going to Central High School, in 1910, Mr. Knoll taught physics at Villanova College. He became interested in radio at Central High and organized the Radio Club there. He also installed amplification systems in the school auditorium, and was the inventor of the radio compass and the thermoionic detector. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Rosa Ebert Knoll; and 2 brothers, Chester, of Reading, and Richard, of York. The funeral services were held in the afternoon of Jan. 6, at 1935 N. Broad St., with burial in Ivy Hill Cemetery.

MEYER, REV. BENJAMIN METTING, was born on Feb. 25, 1859, the son of Henry and Wilhelmina Metting Meyer. He was graduated from Franklin and Marshall College in 1880, and from the Theological Seminary at Lancaster in 1893. That same year he was ordained and installed as the pastor of Christ Church in Elizabethtown, Pa. To the ministry of that congregation and the serving of that community he gave his life during his long pastorate of 31 years. Forced by ill health to give up the active ministry in 1924, he moved to Lancaster, where until the time of his death he was a regular visitor in the 2 hospitals, carrying comfort and cheer to all who were in those institutions. He died of pneumonia on Mar. 18, 1932. He is survived by 2 brothers, Henry and William, both of Rohrerstown, Pa. A brief service was held at the home of his brother, Henry, on Mar. 21. Immediately following, the service was held in his home congregation, Salem Church, Rohrerstown, Pa. Interment was made in the Rohrerstown Cemetery.

PETERS, REV. NERI F., D.D., pastor emeritus of St. John's Church, Slatington, Pa., where he served a pastorate of 43 years, died June 26, 1932, at 8:45 P.M., at the Sacred Heart Hospital, Allentown, Pa. Dr. Peters was in his 76th year. He was a son of the late Neri and Serena (Scheirer) Peters, and was born near Schnecksville, May 19, 1857. At an early age he went to work. At the age of 20 he began teaching in the Rockdale School. Six months later he resumed his trade as a cabinetmaker in Great Bend, Kan. He was chosen deputy treasurer of Barton Co., Kan., and held this position for 2 years, at the same time studying law with one of the leading firms in Barton Co. He then entered the Iowa State University to study law and was graduated with the degree of LL.B., June 21, 1881. Dr. Peters later entered the Theological Seminary at Tiffin, O. He was licensed May 31, 1884, by Tiffin Classis and accepted a call from the Orbisonia congregation, Huntingdon Co., Pa., where he was ordained and installed Nov. 6, 1884, where he served 1 yr, 9 mos. Next he accepted a call from St. John's Church, Slatington. He faithfully served St. John's 43 years, from 1886 to 1929, when he resigned and was made pastor emeritus. Since that time Dr. Peters and his wife resided with a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Fink, Reading. On Sept. 17, 1885, he was married to Serena J. Kuntz, who survives him, as do 3 children: Allen W., Walnutoport; Mrs. C. F. Seidel, Allentown; and Mrs. Fink. The funeral services were held on July 1. A short service was held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Seidel, Allentown, at 1:30 P.M. Services were continued in St. John's Church, Slatington, at 2:30 P.M. Interment in Union Cemetery, Slatington.

REAM, REV. SOLOMON, retired veteran minister, passed to his Eternal Home after a brief illness on Aug. 15. He was born on July 2, 1848, on a farm near Sugar Grove, O., where his early life was spent. He graduated from both Heidelberg College and Seminary, and entered his first charge, Heidelberg, near Tiffin, in 1874. In his next field, Fulton, Mich., he was married to Miss Ida A. Lusk, in 1878, who preceded him in death 4 years ago. Two daughters survive: Mrs. C. E. Barkley and Mrs. Karl A. Parsons; also a sister, Mrs. John S. Crook, and a half-brother, Charles Strayer. Mr. Ream served 14 pastorates, covering 47 years, namely: Heidelberg, west of Tiffin; Fulton, Mich.; New Madison; Tremont City, O.; Uniontown, O.; Liscomb, Ia.; Lone Tree, Ia.; Wilton Junction, Ia.; Mill Creek, Ill.; Stonington, Ill.; Kinnick-kinnick, O.; Hartville, O.; Manchester, Akron, O.; and Zion, northwest of Lancaster, O. In 1919 he moved to Lancaster, O., where he served the Rushville and Colfax Churches for 2 years as supply pastor. In later years he preached as opportunity offered. He was a minister of more than ordinary intellectual ability, loyal to the traditions, doctrines and history of our Church. He was the author of several books, and contributed articles to the Church papers. He had a penchant for curios and accumulated a large collection, a number of which he presented to the Mumaugh Memorial, Lancaster. The funeral services were held in Grace Church, Lancaster, O., Aug. 17. Interment was made in the Ream Cemetery at Horns Mill.

SCHNEIDER, REV. CHARLES BAUMAN, D.D., was born at Bowmansville, Lancaster Co., Pa., Jan. 5, 1861. He was the son of pious parents and enjoyed the blessings of a Christian home. Out of this family have come two of our most useful ministers, the subject of this sketch, and his consecrated brother, David B. Schneider, of Japan. A third son, Dr. Amos Schneider, is one of our outstanding laymen. Dr. Schneider received his early education in the public schools of his native community. At an early age he was catechized, and confirmed in Center Church of the Reamstown Charge. In 1885 he graduated with honors from Franklin and Marshall College. Three years later he completed his work in the Theological Seminary and was ordained and installed as pastor of St. Peter's Church, Pine Grove, Pa. Dr. Schneider was first married to Elizabeth Renninger. One son, Wm. A., now the honored and efficient Attorney-General of Pennsylvania, was born to the young couple, Oct. 5, 1886. Shortly after his birth the mother died. June 9, 1891, Dr. Schneider was married to Ivy E. Hughes, of Pine Grove, Pa. He was then pastor of St. John's Church, Shamokin, Pa. When Rev. and Mrs. Schneider took up their work in their new field, St. John's Church had a membership of 430. During the 40 years of his ministry the congregation increased from 430 to 1,618. In 1896 he was elected President of East Susquehanna Classis, in 1913 was chosen as a member of the Board of Home Missions, later becoming its Vice-president; in 1905 was made a trustee of Cedar Crest College; in 1909 received the honorary degree of D.D. from Franklin and Marshall College; in 1913 was elected President of the Eastern Synod; in 1918 became a member of the Board of Visitors of the Theological Seminary at Lancaster; and in 1925 was made President of the Pennsylvania German Society; in 1926 he was chosen as President of the Board of Visitors of the Theological Seminary and in 1927 was appointed a member of the Board of Trustees of the Shamokin State Hospital. As a pastor he had few equals and no superiors in the Christian ministry. The passing of Dr. Schneider followed an operation in the Jefferson Hospital, Philadelphia. After a brief service Nov. 6 in the parsonage, the family of mourners proceeded with the remains to the Church auditorium where the funeral services were held. Burial was made in Shamokin Cemetery, the body being placed in a crypt of the mausoleum. He lived beautifully because he was conscious of the presence of God.

SLINGHOFF, REV. CHARLES H., was born in Littlestown, Pa., July 19, 1866, the son of Milton and Rebecca (Blum). He was educated in the schools of his native town, graduating from

Rev. C. H. Slinghoff

Krebs Academy, Littlestown. After teaching school for 2 years he entered Ursinus College, graduating in 1890 and from the Seminary in 1893. He was licensed and ordained by Lancaster Classis at Marietta, Pa. After a brief pastorate of 2 years he accepted a call to McConnellstown, Pa., and served there for 7 years. Subsequently he served pastorates at Brownback's, Chester Co., 13 years; and Tower City, 11 years. He was called to Grace Church, Richland, in 1925, where he served until his death. He was married to Sarah Tyson, who was his constant helpmate. Besides the widow he is survived by two sons, the Rev. Paul T., of Mahanoy City, Pa., and Charles M., at home; 2 daughters, Mrs. Milton Probasco, and Mrs. George Longaker. Rev. Mr. Slinghoff fell on New Year's Day and injured his knee. Complications developed and he died on Mar. 23, 1932. He was buried Easter Monday morning. Interment was made in the Richland Cemetery.

SOMMERLATTE, REV. PAUL, was born at Leipzig, Saxony, Germany, May 20, 1854, received his education in the public school and Real Gymnasium at Leipzig, was confirmed April 8, 1868, at St. Nicolai, by the Arch-Deacon Grafe, and served in the regular army as a 1-year volunteer from April, 1874 to April, 1875, in the 105th regiment at Chemnitz, Saxony. In 1885, he emigrated to the United States and, working at New York, joined the Reformed Church. He was appointed Harbor Missionary of the Reformed Church at the landing place, Ellis Island, New York, in 1890, served as such for 15 years, from 1890 to 1905. He was ordained by the New York Classis, 1895. He accepted a call from St. Paul's Church at Philadelphia, and served as pastor from Oct. 1, 1906, to April, 1921. After a service of 15½ years at Philadelphia, he was appointed traveling missionary and Superintendent of Missions of the Reformed Church in Canada, Mar. 31, 1921, by the Tri-Synodical Board of Home Missions, making his headquarters in the province of Alberta, at Edmonton and Vegreville, later in the province of Saskatchewan, at Wolseley. He passed away June 6, 1932, at the home of his son, Rev. John Sommerlatte, Lakewood, O. The funeral was held June 9, with interment in Cleveland, O. Those who mourn his loss are a married daughter, Mrs. Ruth Long, Cleveland, O.; and 2 sons, who are ministers, Rev. John Sommerlatte, at Cleveland, and Rev. Ewald Sommerlatte, Alliance, Ohio.

STEINERT, REV. JOHN G., retired, was called to his reward on June 7, 1932, the end coming peacefully at his home, the residence of his brother-in-law, George W. Moeller, Breinigsville, Pa. He was in his 77th year. Born in Oberngeis, Hersfeld, Germany, Nov. 11, 1855, a son of Peter Steinert, he came to this country at the age of 13, with a friend. They landed in New York in August, 1869. Having two uncles in Tamaqua, young Steinert settled at that place. Being very studious and having a desire to enter the ministry, he applied himself diligently to books and later graduated from the Mission House College, Plymouth, Wis. He was licensed to preach at Centreport, Ind., in 1882, remained until 1884, when he went to serve a charge at Prairie, Nebr., having congregations at Dry Branch, Four Mile and Rattlesnake. In 1888 he went to Indianapolis, and after a pastorate of 10 years he was called to Detroit, Mich. His last charge was at Blue Anchor, N. J., where he served from 1906 to 1913. In 1913 he moved to Breinigsville with his family, where he lived retired. He leaves to mourn his passing two sisters, Mrs. Catherine Tyson and Mrs. Kalbfleisch, both living in Germany, together with several nieces and nephews. The funeral was held from his late home on June 11, with short services at the house and continued services in the Trexlertown Church, where interment was made in the adjoining Cemetery.

STONER, REV. ABRAM B., was born in Ashland, Co., O., in 1848, and died at his home, Drexel Hill, Pa., on Nov. 18, 1931, after an illness of two months at the age of 83. He graduated from Savannah Academy, then from Ohio Wesleyan University, and in 1877 graduated from Ursinus Theological Seminary. He became the pastor of Trinity Church, Norristown, Pa. He afterwards served Grace Church, Philadelphia; Thurmont, Md.; Landisburg, Pa.; Fulton, Mich., and Sulphur Springs, O. He was married to Anna Helfenstein, daughter of Dr. Benjamin Helfenstein, of Norristown, in 1879. To them were born 6 children, of whom 2 have died. After serving his last charge, Mr. Stoner moved to Collegeville, Pa. In 1920 he removed to Drexel Hill. He is survived by his widow; 2 daughters, Miss Mary Stoner and Miss Judith Stoner; 2 sons, Dr. Wm. H. Stoner, Mt. Vernon, N. Y., and Paul Stoner, at home. Funeral services were held Nov. 21 at Trinity Church, Norristown, Pa. Interment was made in Norris City Cemetery.

WIEST, REV. EDWARD F., D.D., was born Feb. 3, 1863. He died at Ivyland, Pa., on Feb. 21, 1932. He received his education in Ursinus College and Seminary, and was ordained to the Christian ministry in 1893. Dr. Wiest is survived by his wife and 4 children, 2 sons and 2 daughters. The funeral services were held in First Church, Philadelphia, on Feb. 24. Dr. Wiest held 7 successful pastorates. These were in the following order: East Vincent, Chester Co., Pa.; James Creek Charge, Huntingdon Co., Pa.; First Church, Philadelphia (then at 10th and Wallace Sts.); Heidelberg Church, York, Pa.; Trinity Church, Norristown, Pa.; St. Stephen's Church, Lebanon, Pa., and Grace Church, Columbiana, O. He resigned the last named but a few months before his death, because of ill health. Dr. Wiest was especially well known as an evangelistic preacher of exceptional force.

FOOD FOR MIND AND HEART

Those who have been readers of the Church paper for years do not need to be convinced of its power for good. In many thousands of homes it has proved itself a real blessing. If we are to maintain a Church in which educational religion and religious education are not simply theories, but actual facts, we must have a reading people—families who are intelligently informed with regard to the activities and the needs of Christ's Kingdom. The Reformed Church Messenger ($2.50), our oldest Church paper, is edited by Rev. Dr. Paul S. Leinbach, with the Rev. A. S. Bromer, D.D., as Associate Editor. The Christian

World ($2.25) is edited by the Rev. Dr. H. S. Gekeler. The Kirchenzeitung ($2.50), our German paper, is edited by the Rev. Dr. Carl F. Heyl. The Outlook of Missions is published monthly, price $1.00, and the International Journal of Religious Education, monthly, costs $2.00. Remember that a truly Reformed Church must be an informed Church. Too many homes are now without Christian literature. One of the greatest services you can render to Protestantism is to inspire a love of good reading in the hearts and minds of the people. And the only genuine statesmanship is to begin with the children in the home.

Life Annuity Bonds

If you are living on your income and will in all likelihood never have to spend the principal, why not make a perfectly safe investment at a fair rate of interest by taking a Life Annuity Bond? You will receive the interest as long as you live and the Board will have the use of the money at once.

Write to the Secretary of the Board you are interested in. He will explain the plan to you.

"Church School" is now used to include the Sunday and Week-day sessions of the Church School in the local congregation.
Note:—The difference in the Total Membership as given in Blank No. 2, and that found in Blank No. 1, arises from the fact that some pastors have failed to make the totals for their congregations, as given in two blanks, agree. J. R. S.

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

of the Reformed Church in the United States

LANCASTER, PENNSYLVANIA

This School of Theology, the oldest educational institution of the Reformed Church, is conducted under the direction of three English Synods: The Eastern, the Pittsburgh, and the Potomac.

Six Professors, four Instructors, an annual Lecturer and a Librarian.

In addition to the required work in the six Departments, courses are offered in Social Christianity, Rural Church Problems, History and Theory of Missions, History and Comparative Study of Religions and Church Music. A Professor of Christian Education will have charge of that department for the coming year. Required and Elective courses leading to degree of B.D. Worship conducted in chapel with pipe organ under the direction of a Master of Sacred Music.

Rooms and board in new dormitory and refectory at moderate rates.

The Seminary year begins on the second Thursday of September.

Franklin and Marshall College

LANCASTER, PA.

Established 1787

Offers Liberal Courses in The Arts and Sciences

Franklin and Marshall College offers complete four-year courses of study, leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, and Bachelor of Science in Economics.

The Faculty consists of men of profound and accurate scholarship, who hold that the upbuilding of mind and character is the chief function of the college, and care for the individual development of each student.

Seven new buildings have been erected.

The "Fackenthal Laboratories" offers most complete equipment for work in the Sciences for pre-medical students. A course in Economics and Business Administration is especially adapted for students preparing for business life. The Plan of Comprehensive Final Examinations enriches the curriculum and provides for the most modern needs in education.

The new indoor Swimming Pool completes a very thorough equipment for athletics.

David's song of praise

2 SAMUEL 22

to the Lord

and my cry did enter into his ears.

8 Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations of heaven moved and shook, because he was wroth.

9 There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth dety, that thou mayest bring them down.

29 For thou art my lamp, O LORD; and the LORD will lighten my darkness.

30 For by thee I have run through a troop: by my God have I leaped over a wall.
